ABOUT THE HOST:

Trinity Apartments are a family run business with a super team working with us. My husband, Pearse and myself, Eimear are the owners of Trinity Apartments and have a team of 8 housekeeping staff all who have several jobs as well as working with us to provide comfortable and clean accommodations for our guests.

We moved to Waterford over 20 years ago, Pearse was from Tyrone and I was from Belfast. Pearse is an MD of a Consulting Engineering company in Waterford and I work as the Financial Controller for the company. We are both very busy with our work load but residing only 15 min drive from the city centre and the apartments we are always available for our guests if needed either in person or texts/ calls. Our office is only a 5min walk also from the apartments so if we are needed by a guest it is never a problem. We enjoy residing in Waterford as voted the best place to live in Ireland with all that the city and county offers it is a great place to bring up a family. We have the mountains, several beaches, museums, award winning restaurants and bars, you will always find something to enjoy for all the family.

ABOUT THE NEIGHBOURHOOD:

Waterford is located in the sunny south east of Ireland and is a beautiful part of Ireland. Waterford was founded in 914 AD by Vikings from Norway, Waterford City is over 1100 years old making it Ireland's oldest City. In 914, the great Viking adventurer and pirate, Regnall, a grandson of Ivor the Boneless, established a base here and built a Longphort or ships haven, which would in time become a modern city.

Today, Waterford is known for Waterford Crystal, a legacy of the city's former glass-making industry. Glass, or crystal, was manufactured in the city from 1783 until early 2009 when the factory there was shut down after the receivership of Waterford Wedgwood plc. There is so much to see and do in Waterford and its surrounding county & counties. Waterford attracts many tourists each year due to its beautiful buildings, its liveability, its friendly public space, its weather, and its easy access to the Comeragh Mountains and the Copper Coast. Waterford has two Greenways to offer its locals and visitors.

One Greenway is from Waterford City via Kilmacthomas to Dungarvan and enjoy a cycle along the beautiful scenic pathway free from all traffic or enjoy a relaxing walk. Waterford bike hire is only a 10min walk from our apartments and start the Greenway from the Quays. The other Greenway is called the South East Greenway which links Waterford City with New Ross, Co Wexford which travels along the old railway line. Trinity Apartments is located within a 3min walk to the main restaurants and bars Waterford has to offer and the Viking Triangle. Waterford City is steeped in history, from it's Viking roots to the beauty of Georgian & Victorian times in Waterford. Waterford opens its doors to thousands of Irish and international guests each year. Our apartments are located on a quiet street and still in the heart of the City centre.
